

Rob Smith – President, Fitzgerald Auto Malls

Fitzgerald Auto Malls announced the appointment of Rob Smith as President effective Friday, September 22, 2023. These changes come as the company transformed into the largest dealership group in the nation to become a 100 percent employee-owned company through an Employee Stock Ownership Program, known as an ESOP. Long-tenured executive Smith has been a part of the Fitzgerald family for over 30 years.

Smith, formerly Vice President, started at the Company 33 years ago. His first position at Fitzgerald Auto Malls was in sales and in no time, he proved himself and moved his way up to service and senior management. Smith led the organization to the achievement of ISO9001 Quality management certification. Following this accomplishment, Smith moved into key executive roles for JJF Management in 2003. Smith has also performed the role of Executive Vice President over the past years.
